11: Explain the eight principles of effective communication

1) Clarity -

A clear mind is reflected in writing that have clarity unless your thoughts & ideas are clear, your writing tends to be muddled (untidy). Then you have to begin by clearing your thoughts & deliberately making a choice of the words & expressions that you are going to use.

2) Time -

It is important to have excellent communication skills in the work place because this helps with time management & efficiency. The ability to communicate well keeps the staff more focused on meeting deadlines.

3) Shortness -

If the messaging can be made brief & verbosity did away with then transmission & comprehension of message are going to be faster & more effective.

4) Correctness -

The information communicated must not be vague or false in any sense. It must be free from errors & grammatical mistakes.

⑤ Feedback -

Recipients are not just passive absorbers of messages, they receive response of a receiver to sender's message is called feedback.

⑥ Completeness -

The communication must be complete. It should convey all facts required by the audience. The sender of the message must take into consideration the receiver's mind set & convey the message accordingly.

⑦ Communication Channel -

Communication channel are the means through which people in an organization communicate. Thought must be given to what channel are used to complete various tasks.

⑧ Sequence -

A sequence is a series of behavioral interactions inside a person, or between two or more people. Every sequence has beginning a middle & an end.
